

SOCCERPLUS LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

Will you be aged 15-17 in 2009?
Are you thinking about or preparing to go to College?
Do you love Soccer?

Tony DiCicco, double World Cup winning Coach and Olympic Gold Medalist invites you to attend an introductory session at SoccerPlus Education Center (SPEC), Farmington Sports Arena, on Sunday 25th January at 2pm. Interested participants and parents are welcome.

Benefits of the program:

- Learn from proven leaders in sport and business
- Make connections with and quiz elite sports performers from soccer and other sports
- Work with other aspiring leaders on team projects
- Add significant weight to your resume and receive assistance in setting yourself apart from others of your age and experience
- Give back – support SPEC charitable activities and test your leadership skills
- Create, implement and lead a charitable endeavor and raise funding
- Gain a coaching license and earn money coaching young players
- Gain community service credit for High School

Program details:

- Six month commitment commencing in April, 2009
- Team building activities developing communication, trust and conflict resolution
- Presentations, workshops and practical activities offered by successful leaders
- Create a portfolio of your experience, resources and other facts
- Receive a recognized soccer coaching award
- Topics include: Developing self-confidence, time management, strategic thinking, how to sell concepts and ideas, how to sell yourself, coping skills, public speaking and presentations, fundraising and budget management, developing a business plan, communications and building relationships.

Location of event: SoccerPlus Education Center, 11 Executive Drive, Farmington, CT 06032

Places are limited, so please register at www.soccerpluseducation.org to attend the presentation at no charge.

Questions? - call Heather Hathorn, Events Coordinator, 860-677-7500

SOCCERPLUS EDUCATION CENTER

“Enriching Lives Through Soccer and Education”

soccerpluseducation.org